KBHAC Education Facilitator

ABOUT US

Kinchela Boys Home Aboriginal Corporation (KBHAC) is a survivor led Aboriginal community controlled organisation established to help restore and reconstruct the identity, dignity and integrity of Aboriginal men who were forcibly removed from their families and put into the Kinchela Boys Home (KBH), and to address the intergenerational trauma that adversely impacts on the lives of the men's families and descendants.

KBHAC has developed a unique survivor led approach to its governance and healing described as:

Survivor led – an approach to organisational governance and practice built on and informed by the guidance and unique insights offered by survivors and which, contributes to the social and emotional wellbeing of survivors, their communities and cultures. The KBH survivors own their stories and healing, leading from a place of self-determination.

THE POSITION

The KBHAC Education Facilitator is responsible for the delivery of Stolen Generations survivor led education programs under the banner of KBHAC. The programs are delivered to primary and secondary aged students, community groups and other audiences across metropolitan and regional areas of NSW.
